Dear Sir:

On 9 June 1960 two members of my staff, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], visited your Chief of the Instructional Methods Branch, Training Division, Dr. Ralph S. Acker.

The purpose of this visit was to explore any new training concepts, methods, and techniques Dr. Acker might have, particularly with respect to training aids, large and small group instruction, and language training techniques.

Dr. Acker was very generous with his time and materials in briefing my personnel concerning his instructional program. Of special value were the course outlines and allied information on the Instructional Methods Program. The Avenue of Aids gave my personnel some new ideas concerning student motivational media, particularly with respect to the use of color, cut-outs, and motion.

I desire to express my appreciation to Dr. Acker, through your office, for the courtesy and interest shown on this visit.

Sincerely yours,

SIGNED

Matthew Baird
Director of Training
